MISSION STATEMENT:

The mission of California Drug Treatment Program is to offer "State-of-the-Art" Individual and Group Counseling, behavioral modification, and resource linkage services to clients and participants, and to establish the highest standards of care in Youths Rehabilitation Program.

PHILOSOPHY:

We believe in the abilities and rights of individuals to bring positive changes in their lifestyles and that the focus of treatment should be on client, thus our services are aimed at achieving the earliest and most reasonable return of youths to a more positive behavior in the community.

SERVICE MODEL:

California Drug Treatment Program's philosophy is that all people are capable of change especially youths facing challenging issues. We base our intensive counseling program on the realization that drug addiction, uncontrollable anger and low self-esteem all exerts life changing behavior on youths which can dramatically leads to destructive consequences if left untreated.

California Drug Treatment's Youths Rehabilitative program (DCH) is design to facilitate drug abuse Treatment aimed at all youths. Reconnecting Youths is also an integral part of California's Youths Program. Our Rehabilitative model is based on empirical proven practices and procedures of counseling to foster the development of mutually supportive peer group that encourages positive behaviors. Our model also focuses on enhancing youth's self-esteem; improving decision-making, communication skills, and ability to manage stress, anger and depression.
