Freddie Mac Foundation's
Wednesday's Child

It's Food and Wine Week in LA and we're cooking up something special with this week's Wednesday's Child at Wolfgang Puck's Spago Restaurant in Beverly Hills, California. In the kitchen with us was Spago's Executive Chef Sherry Yard.

Daniel (1998) loves to cook and is quite creative in concocting specialties and coming up with different food pairings. When Daniel is not in the kitchen he is often found outside playing sports or sometimes glued to the television watching various celebrity chefs and learning all about culinary flair on the Food Network.

Daniel is building many fond memories in the kitchen and tells us quickly that in addition to finding a forever family who will love him unconditionally, finding one that includes a fellow cooking aficionado would be an added plus. Daniel says he wants to attend culinary school and possibly be a chef someday.

Daniel has an imaginative engaging spirit. We're looking for a forever family that makes a good paring with Daniel and can help him find good balance in the different flavorings that life has to offer. We hope that someone – in the form of adoptive family members – will be in the kitchen with Daniel soon.
