Halloween is upon us. While Dylan is on the look out for the great pumpkin, we're searching high and low for the perfect family for this deserving kid. For this 16 year old, it would be scary to spend another year without a family to call his own.

We met up with Dylan at Pa's Pumpkin Patch in Long Beach, California to begin our search and to get to know Dylan a little better. Born in 1992, Dylan is still a kid at heart. Dylan is active, enthusiastic and has a special spark that makes him loveable.

Dylan loves to play outdoors and especially likes riding his bicycle. Today was about finding the biggest pumpkin he could carry home. Searching in the pumpkin patch can be exhausting work when there are so many pumpkins from which to choose – but in between his search efforts Dylan still found time and had energy to play some games.

Children in foster care are in the child welfare system due to no volition of their own. For Dylan, he's had a difficult road. His history of abuse and neglect has resulted in developmental disabilities as well as some minor medical ones.

Dylan has one simple aspiration – to be part of a permanent and loving family. If you think there's a place carved out for someone like Dylan in your family's patch, give us a call – he's a great kid.
