The circus is in town. Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey, that is. What better place to take this adorable sibling set of four kids than to a family oriented event. Meet Levi, Anthony, Samantha and Damien who no doubt stole the show and hopefully, your hearts as well.

Back stage with Larry the Clown, the kids were treated to a pre-show magic show and learned a few tricks of their own. With a lot of enthusiasm, each of our kiddos participated in each of the tricks, although baby brother Damien was more interested in the balloons.

First up is Levi. Born in 1999 he's the big brother of the bunch. What does big brother want to be when he grows up? Batman! What does Batman do? He protects, says Levi. We can see how this superhero would appeal to Levi. As a big brother, you'd sure want your little brothers and sister well taken care of. What's his favorite thing to do? Family oriented activities such as movie night where he gets to spend time with others.

Born in 2001, Anthony is number two and he always takes big brother's lead. Like any kid, he's active and loves being outdoors and riding his bike. What else does he like? Baseball and of course movies. Perfect for movie night with Levi.

Samantha is number three. Born in 2004, she literally stole the show (and our microphone). Very outgoing and self confident, Samantha sang two of her favorite songs for us. Always and active participant - this little girl has much energy and equal the love to give. Bright, bubbly and energetic captures he perfectly. She sure captured our heart.

Finally, baby brother Damien was born in 2007. He sits back and watches his older siblings and assesses before he joins in. He loves hugs and lots of affection and giving those things back is also what he does best.

We're looking for one permanent family for all four children and keep them together. By the time the circus comes back into town, we hope they will be attending with a family to call their own.
