Valentine's Day is coming. Meet Mariah -- a real sweetheart and this week's Wednesday's Child story. We met Mariah at Fruits to Remember in Beverly Hills, California to make some healthy Valentine's Day treats.

Mariah is a fun-loving girl who is looking forward to becoming a teenager on her next birthday. She loves to sing and has thought about making a career of it when she grows up. Listening to a variety of music -- such as Hip Hop, Rap, Regetone and Hanna Montana -- is one of Mariah's favorite pastimes.

As Mariah is maturing, she is also showing an interest in colorful, teenage-style clothes -- notice her cute outfit in her favorite color, pink. Mariah is also very artistic and likes to draw and color -- which made this the perfect place for us to learn more about her and for her to show off her creativity.

Mariah was born in 1996. With her teenage years just around the corner, this lovely girl is still very much a kid at heart but also very nurturing. Mariah tells us that she'd like to have a permanent family to call her own and that she wouldn't mind having siblings and maybe even having older brothers and sisters.

If you have a heart for older children and understand that children at any age need a loving and permanent home, please give us a call.

Happy Valentine's Day from
Mariah and the Wednesday's Child Team.
