Meet Marshay, a beautiful young lady with a great sense of humor. Our funny girl met comedian, Katt Williams on the court at the Ritz Carlton in Marina Del Rey, California for some tennis time. You'd never know that this polite and friendly gal went to tennis camp and can hit a mean serve. Katt certainly found that out. Lunch on the patio of the world class Jer Ne restaurant at the Ritz and plenty of ice tea were needed after.

Born in 1993, aside from tennis, Marshay also runs track and this young lady can do both athletics and academics. One thing that we noticed about Marshay is that no matter what she is doing she always wears that radiant smile. She's open to trying new things and being a great sport in whatever she does. It's obvious that wherever she goes, she makes friends easily.

Growing up in foster care is a difficult thing and hard for many (and understandably so) to focus on any one thing, especially the future. Marshay has a lot of focus. She wants to be a nurse practitioner when she grows up and has set up her goals to perform well in school. Marshay tells us that she wants to be in a profession that will make a difference and help others.

We're looking for a special family with a special understanding that teens need permanency too. A family that will continue to nurture this great gal already with positive energy, ambition and a caring nature.
