Fall is here and we're on the hunt for the perfect pumpkin. We went to Pa's Pumpkin Patch in Long Beach, California to start our search. There we met up with three perfectly delightful sisters with a lot of love to share, with each other as well as their yet-to-be-discovered perfectly suited family.

Sonia was born in 1998, Dulce was born in 1999 and baby sister Maria was born in 2003. All three sisters are very affectionate and worked together well in their team effort to find the perfect pumpkins.

Sonia is the big sister who can be a little shy and reserved at first. But being the big sister comes with much responsibility as she's often the one that worries about her siblings and takes great care in making sure that their needs are met. True to her caring spirit, Sonia wants to grow up to be a therapist someday to help others.

Dulce is the middle child -- very outgoing, cheerful and optimistic. Her strong personality lends itself to Dulce becoming the leader of the pack and she had no problem diving into the pumpkin patch to find her perfect pumpkin.

Maria, the baby sister, is a very easy going child. As youngest sibs often are, Maria's playful, carefree and full of laughter. She's looking forward to Halloween and wants to dress up to be a witch (not a bad witch, but a good one she told us). Maria is enthusiastic about everything that she does and has much charisma and talks at the speed of light.

It would be “scary” if this trio goes into another season without a permanent family. While they are looking for the perfect pumpkin this year, the perfectly suited family we are seeking for them is the one that can understand the importance for these sisters to stay together and recognize that one does not need to be perfect to be the perfectly suited parent for children in need of permanency.

The pumpkins have been selected, but our search for the perfectly suited family for Sonia, Dulce and Maria continues. If you see these three fitting perfectly into your family’s patchwork, we hope you come a’knockin’ – it’d be a treat to tell you more about these sweet sisters.

Happy Halloween from Sonia, Dulce and Maria!
