

UNITED FRIENDS OF THE CHILDREN
has partnered with
USC SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
to bring the 12th annual college preparatory event

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24
 UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
 9:00AM-4:00PM
LUNCH AND TRANSPORTATION WILL BE PROVIDED.

Greetings,

You are invited to attend an event dedicated to helping you get and stay on the college path. As a 7th-12th grade student living in foster care or a youth who has already aged out of foster care, this day will be packed with information made especially for you. There will be separate workshops for caregivers and service providers as well.

You will:

- Interact with current college scholars and alumni who were, until recently, in similar situations to you.
- Participate in interactive workshops and learn from experts on what it takes to go to college.
- Get your questions about the college application process answered.
- Learn the good news about college affordability through financial aid.
- Check out a College and Resource Fair with people there ready to meet your unique needs.

WORKSHOP TOPICS

For students:

- Introduction to Campus Life
- The College Going Path
- Choosing the Right College
- Becoming a Competitive College Applicant
- College Entrance Exam Prep
- College Application Process
- Making Community College Work for You

For caregivers & service providers:

- The College Going Path: Role of Adults
- What Works: Tips from former foster youth attending college

Bus transportation to and from USC is available from sites throughout Los Angeles County.
