

Free Tutoring Services

Offered by...

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Program Features: Youth ages 14 to 18 in out of home placement can be referred for an academic assessment. If the youth is functioning below grade level up to 50 hours of in home tutoring may be provided.

Youth ages 18 through 20 may also be academically assessed. Those youth assessed to be in need of tutoring will be referred back to the Transition Coordinator.

All youth, ages 14-20, that have passed both parts of the California High School Exit Exam (CAHSEE) or reside outside of Los Angeles County, should not be referred for an academic assessment or tutoring.

The Program is conducted by one of the three Contractors, depending on the youth's placement address:

The Community College Foundation (TCCF)
Service Planning Area (SPA) 1, 5, and 7

The Foundation for California Community Colleges (FCCC)
SPA 2, 3, 4 and 8

Para Los Ninos (PLN)
SPA 6

The Referral Process: Contact youth's CSW to refer. CSW will complete and provide the New TILP and DCFS 5557 to the TRANSITION COORDINATOR in the DCFS regional office. For more information or questions contact 213-351-0100.