

The Parent Project

Learn how to keep your kids safe!

Do you and your teenage child argue a lot?

Are you afraid of your teenage child?

Do you think your teenager might be using alcohol or other drugs?

Is your child hanging out with gang members?

Has your teenager received an "F" in a school subject?

If so, You are Not Alone!!!

The J.J.C.P.A. and S.A.G.E. Parent Project Collaborative
 Invite you to Learn New Ways of Taking Control of your Family

We will help you to:

- Develop New Parenting Skills that Work
- Create a Plan to manage serious behavior problems.
- Get emotional & practical support from parents and community members.

4 locations: 10 weekly classes and support groups for parents

For registration information please call (626) 968-9940
